Volume 4 Issue 2

1. Last Meetings.

There were two meetings held on January 14, and February 10 . They were fantastic by Mr. Chris Chan, P. Eng. and Mr. Pang Tang, P. Eng.. Chris gave us an insight into the drilling in the oil and gas industry. It is an educational presentation. Also, Pang from Telus about the Internet. Those who have not exposed to Internet found it interesting and wanted to hooked to the Internet right away. Those who have the connection want to know more about Internet and make it more efficient. They were excellent presentations.

2. Next Meeting

Please mark your calendar to attend the next technical meeting on March 10, 1997 at Marco Polo Restaurant. The speakers are Ms Sandra Mah, B. Comm., LL. B. and Mr. Bill Gee B.. Comm. to speak on “ Estate Planning”. It will give you an insight on the legal and investment prospects of the estate planning. Please come to this informative

3. Fourth Anniversary Meeting

The fourth Anniversary meeting is scheduled on ~~April 26, 1997~~ (now rescheduled to May 17, 1997). The speaker is Mr. Henry Yip, V.P. of Telus, who will speak on the latest technology in the communication world. The tickets are available for sale at 22. 00 per person. The program includes dance and luck draws.

4. APEGGA

There is an article in the PEGG , a publication of AGEGGA, which introduces our Society to the public and let people know the objectives of our Society. A few phone calls have been received and the callers showed interest to work or get projects in China.

5. Logo Competition

A competition is opened for the design of our Society's logo. Please make use of your talent to come out with the best design. All members are welcome to submit the logo to our mailing address as noted at the last page. The deadline is April 15,1997. The winner will be awarded.

6. Membership news:

We want to welcome new members Vinh Duong, Robert Woo both EITs freshly out of the U of A and student engineers Lee Long, Vincent Chao, Byron Wong, Amy Yip and Douglas Xiao. These young energetic engineers and engineers-to-be joined our society during our January, 1997 technical meeting. As our president noted during the January, 1997 welcome in the meeting, "these young professionals will ensure longevity for our society".

Our friend in Saudi Arabia, Marvin Mah returned to Edmonton for a short visit during Xmas and New Year. Daniel Woo and Shun Kwong had a chance to meet Marvin during dim-sum at Marco Polo. Marvin would be returning to Saudi Arabia to commence another term of teaching university courses.
